

Across

2. tune with a paraphrased JJ Cale tease-nod to the locals out west
4. surname of the artist whose well known song was jammed on in the Pittsburgh YEM
6. number of Phish originals debuted on this tour
7. halloween show opener only played that one time
10. a cappella song fittingly played for its lone appearance in a state that includes its name
11. Page toyed with a ragtime tease in this one twice this tour
13. cover busted out for FZ in LA
18. first name of one of two gets during 10.22 encore
19. city referenced in cover debut encore in that town
20. length in minutes of the lie Trey tells at the end of numerous first sets
22. what was questioned to exist in the David Bowie song covered six times this tour
24. monster jam portmanteau from Seattle
25. silly and sad lament that garnered a theremin bustout in North Charleston
27. the band played this city for the first time ever this tour
29. Trey toy that helped to buoy many of the big jams
31. song about the other gal, you know, the one from Gamehendge
33. mostly typical stuff from this oldie but the one in Sacramento has a fun, guest-aided jam
34. birthday celebrant honored with a raging show and bustout in Seattle
36. uncle whose song Phish played with a member of the NGDB
37. first name of Wildwood Weed vocalist
39. fan-loved Who cover only played once
41. classic phish tune and one time opener this tour in 'honor' of the prevailing weather leading up to the show that night
42. it's in the heart
44. storytime tune that waited until the encore of the final show for its only appearance
45. voraciously alternate song only played once
46. the type of groove jamming most prevalent on this tour
47. road song where Page shines brightest
52. collective term for the bevy of costumed folk on stage in Vegas
53. the biggest jam of the tour came out of this tune
54. album covered on Halloween
57. bustout ditty revolving around 7bps, maybe 7.5bps
58. phish original that tends to get guest help during halloween shows
59. the only Syd Barrett penned tune played this tour
61. the 'great' jam that cements the middle of the costume set
62. now common song busted out for its only 1996 performance in Tallahassee
63. first name of 'Surrender to the Air' drummer who sat in for Hartford
64. ABB drummer who joined the fun in the Coral Sky encore
66. the other guy who played on the 10.22 encore
67. first name of the gentleman after which the venue where Phish opened this tour is now named
68. typically numerically referenced song that grew into its own
70. name of the Arkansas mule that ain't no fool
72. Omaha, Vancouver, Auburn Hills, Vegas ones are all gooooooooood
76. thrice played robot death machine song
77. band for the album from 10.31
78. half of a pair of songs debuted this tour that have never not appeared together
79. guest trumpeter's nom de plume

Down

1. there were two fewer versions of this than the vehicle it references
2. travelogue about a dog with a deep jam in Omaha
3. Cali venue where McEuen and Apfelbaum sat in
5. mode of transportation key to the feel of a cool down song played frequently this tour
6. Billy Breathes acoustic bathroom tune
8. one of the first songs where the funk took root
9. old friend of the band who showed up during the "M" set
12. only Rift tune not played, perhaps because it is on the album twice?
14. last song before the long drive west
15. Pittsburgh's version was quite evil
16. band who helped out with the goings on in Vegas
17. a cappella tune that closed 2nd sets in half its appearances and got trumpet help once
18. typically common bluegrass original not played this tour
20. Jimi cover that closed two 2nd sets and encored three more shows
21. mimi and dancers aided romp from NYC
23. first name of the guest percussionist for four shows
24. rarity busted out in Iowa of all places
26. locale for a show seemingly impacted by area storms
28. common song that exists mainly as setlist filler
30. artist whose party Phish attended while visiting the Twin Cities
31. nickname of GCH member who played sax in Atlanta
32. even without it is always nice to hear this one
33. song in which Fish first implored us to 'get up offa that thang'
34. cover that was an encore in four of five times played
35. only venue where the band played more than one show
38. name of the colonel who only gave us one tale this fall
40. rocker that often borrowed the ending of its younger sibling
43. opening song of the only third set of the tour
48. crowd favorite, 2nd set killing romp about animals and aliens
49. album released the day before tour began
50. first name of lighting tech who got his props in Omaha
51. song off of the album released that fall that showed up in the encore the most times
53. raging cover that seems to always end up in a closer or encore slot
55. more than one version had In-A-Gadda-Da-Vida flavorings
56. most common 1st set closer and 2nd most frequently played song of tour
58. abbrev. of a cappella tune Phish played both in shows and at other events
60. one of the four versions didn't have megaphone
61. song from the cover set that has since blossomed into a vehicle
65. slangy name for the instrument that the "dirty old man" played in St. Louis
67. twice played lament on dating
69. our gal
71. chugging dissonance was the name of the game for this one
73. artful madness and final track to the cover set
74. only song from Billy Breathes not played on this tour, or ever for that matter...
75. Lake Placid had the first of the numerous jams this song birthed this tour
77. no other song was played more than this tune that has had several names